About us

Internship Japan is growing group of people working voluntarily (Non-Profit Organization) for the mission to establish and support a new and better system of internships in Japan.

We at Internship Japan believe that young and highly-motivated foreigners willing to work and study in Japan can be a great asset to Japan's business world. The Japanese language is one of the key points for us, so we believe in a joint combination of internships and language education.

Most importantly, we strongly believe that interns should not incur any costs for finding an internship program.
